

འབྲུག་སྐད་སྐད་སྐོ་མང་ཚོས་ཚོགས།

Drepung Gomang Tour 2009

"Sacred traditions that inspire the spirit..."

January 17-24, 2009

MARY BROGAN MUSEUM of ART
350 S. Duval Street, Tallahassee, Florida
(850) 513-0700 www.thebrogan.org

On their return visit to the Brogan Museum, the Drepung Gomang Monks will demonstrate the Sacred Art of Sand Mandala Construction and offer a Tibetan Bazaar to sell their handmade crafts. This week-long event is sponsored by the Drepung Gomang Institute, a nonprofit organization committed to preserving Tibetan culture, traditions and religion. We bring you this event to help the Monastery raise funds to educate, feed, house and care for almost 2,000 exiled Tibetan Monks. See www.gomang.org for details. Programs are offered for a suggested donation. Private blessings and teachings of the dharma by appointment.

For more information, please contact Kaity Power: 445-5275, 668-9419 or kaitypower@embarqmail.com.

visit www.gomang.org

